WWW.ILLUSTRATIONINTENSIVE.COM

At Fantasy Art Workshop (FAW), your health and safety are our top priorities. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and its continued risks, we are implementing the following policies to provide you a healthier space.

Anyone attending our workshop must provide proof of being fully vaccinated against COVID-19 or supply proof of a negative COVID-19 test prior to the event.

Please read each question and answer below for more details. By registering for our event, you confirm receipt of this information and acceptance of the policies below.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What do you mean by “fully vaccinated?”

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) defines people as being fully vaccinated two weeks (14 days) after their second dose in a 2-dose series, such as the Pfizer or Moderna vaccines, or two weeks (14 days) after a single-dose vaccine, such as Johnson & Johnson's Janssen vaccine.

Are the Illustration Intensive organizers and teachers vaccinated?

Yes. FAW co-founders, faculty, guest artists, and guests of honor are fully vaccinated against Covid-19 and some have received vaccine boosters.

What do I as an attendee need to bring to show proof of vaccination?

Proof of vaccination can be a photograph or scan of your completed CDC Covid-19 Vaccination Record Card or WHO-approved vaccine card, provided by the healthcare provider that performed the vaccination. You will also need to show a government-issued ID, such as driver's license or passport, matching the name on the vaccine documentation. A clear, legible photo or scan of these two documents should be emailed to us at info@fantasyartworkshop.com after you have registered for the event. Please send them as soon as possible after you register, but absolutely by May 1, 2022.

Which COVID-19 vaccinations will be accepted?

We will accept COVID-19 vaccines authorized for emergency use or approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA), which at present include:

- Pfizer-BioNTech
- Moderna
- Johnson & Johnson's Janssen

We will also accept any COVID-19 vaccine authorized for emergency use by the World Health Organization (WHO), which include:

- Oxford-AstraZeneca
- Sinopharm-BIBP
- Covaxin

This list is current as of December 7, 2021. However, our vaccination policy may be revised in accordance with federal, state, and local mandates.

I'm not vaccinated. What do I need to bring to prove a negative COVID-19 test?

You will need to show proof of a negative antigen or PCR Covid-19 test to attend our event. Antigen Covid-19 tests must be taken within 24 hours of event start time, and PCR Covid-19 tests must be taken within 72 hours of the start of the event. The test must be administered by a medical provider. We will not accept at-home or self-administered tests.

If you receive positive results for the presence of Covid-19, you will not be allowed to attend our event and will not be refunded your registration fee. The results of your Covid-19 test should be emailed to us at info@fantasyartworkshop.com prior to attending our event.

FAW will not be administering Covid-19 testing on site nor can we assist you in locating testing sites as we will be fully involved in running the Illustration Intensive.

Do I need to wear a face covering?

Yes. We require all attendees, special guests, and faculty to wear face coverings/masks with full nose and mouth coverage within all FAW venues, regardless of vaccination status, in keeping with CDC recommendations. We ask that you bring multiples of your personal, well-fitting masks, but we will also provide disposable masks for those who may need them. All attendees, guests, and faculty are expected to comply with FAW's health and safety precautions.

What if I can't wear a face covering?

If you can't wear a mask due to disability and to request an accommodation for accessibility, please contact us at info@fantasyartworkshop.com.

What measures are being taken to clean and disinfect work areas?

Beyond the increased cleaning regimens implemented by the venue itself, we at Fantasy Art Workshop will close access to our space from 9pm to 8am to allow time for extra cleaning and sanitizing. We will also provide hand-sanitizing stations throughout our space.

Are you requiring social distancing at the event?

We encourage social distancing within the limited space of the venue's learning spaces, art rooms, lecture foyers, and common areas. However, understand that the event is happening inside classrooms within an enclosed building, that is to say, not outdoors. Please take this into consideration when registering for our event.

How safe is it to attend events during the COVID-19 pandemic?

Be advised that the risk of exposure to COVID-19 or other illness exists in any event or public space, including the Illustration Intensive. The health risks of COVID-19 include short-term flu-like illness, long-term damage to vital organs, disability, and even death. Therefore, by registering for our event, you acknowledge and accept this risk. By attending our event, you further confirm:

- You do not have COVID-19 and are not currently experiencing any COVID-19 symptoms as identified by the CDC;
- You have not been in contact with someone suspected of having or confirmed to have COVID-19 without completing a 14-day quarantine;
- You are not under quarantine orders;
- You will wear a snug mask, covering your nose, mouth, and sides of your face without gaps, slits, or openings. Masks may be homemade or manufactured. You must wear a mask at all times unless you are actively eating or drinking.
- You will notify organizers if you experience any changes in your health and/or COVID-19 status while attending the workshop, in which case organizers will make efforts to deliver your belongings to your quarantine location.

- You have read the CDC's latest How to Protect Yourself & Others for best health practices.
- You will abide by CDC guidance and FAW safety efforts in good faith and for the betterment of all those attending the event. Refusal to comply with FAW health and safety measures and/or combativeness of any kind is grounds for ejection from the event without refund.

If the event is canceled due to COVID-19, will I get my money back?

Should the State of Wisconsin or the City of Milwaukee mandate that there be no gatherings due to COVID-19 and FAW thus cancels the Illustration Intensive for this reason, we will refund your registration fee. PLEASE NOTE, however, that it is up to you to cancel any other obligations you may have incurred in planning your attendance, for example, hotel reservations. FAW is not responsible for any other charges you may have incurred in planning to attend the Illustration Intensive.
